WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

2023-24

1 APPLY

'Meet the Tutor' sessions give applicants the chance to meet their tutor and other students that have applied for the course. You will find out about the course, College expectations and you can ask any questions that you may have.

3 MEET THE TUTOR/OPEN EVENINGS

Some courses require you to complete a Summer assignment before you start your course. It is important you take care to complete this as instructed as it may impact your enrolment to the course.

5 SUMMER ASSIGNMENT

During the Summer term you will receive an email inviting you to complete your pre-enrolment online form. You will also be sent an invite to your enrolment session to come into College to fully complete your enrolment.

7 GETTING READY FOR COLLEGE PRE-ENROLMENT

9 TERM STARTS
Early September

2 INTERVIEW &/OR CONDITIONAL OFFER

4 TASTER DAY
June

You will be invited to attend our Taster Day which is a full day experience to support your transition from school to College. It's a great opportunity to meet new students, try out your bus route and spend a day with us exploring College life.

6 TRANSPORT & FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Information about how to apply and pay online for your College bus and how to apply for financial support, uniform or equipment will be sent to you during the Summer holidays.

8 ENROLMENT
End of August

At enrolment you will officially become an IEG student. You will meet your tutor and receive your induction timetable and start date. You will also be able to speak with any of our student support teams to ensure you are all ready to start your journey with us.
