IEG CORPORATION

TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR) FOR THE AUDIT COMMITTEE (AC)

1. The authority for these TORs is contained in the
 - a. Instruments and Articles of Government as approved by the Corporation;
 - b. Post 16 Audit Code of Practice (ACOP)(current version); and
 - c. Corporation Policies.

Amendment of these TORs remains with the Corporation. The Corporation is required by statute to establish an AC to review, monitor and advise on the Group financial health, control and the use of resources. Full detail of their delegated powers is at Para 6; these do not remove the ultimate responsibility of the Corporation for decisions taken on its behalf.

2. The authority and responsibilities of the Committee. The Committee:
 - a. has the authority to investigate any activity within its terms of reference;
 - b. has the right of access to obtain all the information and explanations it considers necessary, from whatever source, to fulfil its remit;
 - c. must comprise at least 3 and not more than 6 members, a majority of whom must be governors, but must not include the Chair of the Corporation or the Principal. The AC must ensure that it maintains its independence when considering the appointment of members;
 - d. should include individuals with an appropriate mix of skills and experience to allow it to discharge its duties effectively. Collectively, members of the committee should have recent, relevant experience in risk management, finance and audit and assurance; and
 - e. must not adopt an executive role.
3. To meet these specific issues the Committee is to:
 - a. assess and provide the Corporation with an opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's audit arrangements, framework of governance, risk management and control, and processes for the effective and efficient use of resources, the solvency of the institution and the safeguarding of its assets;
 - b. advise the Corporation on the appointment, reappointment, dismissal and remuneration of the financial statements and regularity auditors and other assurance providers, including internal auditors (IAS) and establish that all such assurance providers adhere to relevant professional standards;
 - c. ensure effective coordination between the IAS, the funding auditor and the financial statements auditor;
 - d. consider and advise the Corporation on:
 - (i) the audit strategy for the financial statements auditor and the regularity auditor; and
 - (ii) the audit strategy and annual internal audit plans for the IAS.
 - e. inform the Corporation of any additional services provided by the financial statements, regularity and other audit and assurance providers and explain how independence and objectivity were safeguarded;
 - f. advise the Corporation on internal audit assignment reports and annual reports and on control issues included in the management letters of the financial statements auditor (including their work on regularity) and the funding auditor and management's responses to these;
 - g. monitor, within agreed timescales, the implementation of recommendations arising from the management letters and reports of the financial statements and regularity auditor, and of any reports submitted by other providers of audit and assurance services to the Group;

- h. consider and advise the Corporation on relevant reports by the National Audit Office (NAO) and the funding agencies, and where appropriate, management's response to these;
 - i. oversee the Group's policies on fraud and irregularity and whistleblowing, and ensure the proper, proportionate and independent investigation of all allegations and instances of fraud and irregularity; that investigation outcomes are reported to the AC; that the external auditors (and IAS where appointed) have been informed, and that appropriate follow-up action has been planned/actioned, and that all significant cases of fraud or suspected fraud or irregularity are reported to the chief executive of the appropriate funding body;
(Significant fraud is usually where 1 or more of the following factors are involved;
 (i) there is likely to be great public interest because of the nature of the fraud or the people involved;
 (ii) the sums of money are more than £10,000 or specifically, and only, in relation to the 16-19 Bursary Fund a lower limit of £5,000 applies here; or
 (iii) the particulars of the fraud are novel or complex)
 - j. produce an annual report for the Corporation. The annual report must summarise the committee's activities relating to the financial year under review; including any significant issues arising up to the date of preparation of the report, and any significant matters of internal control included in the management letters and reports from auditors or other assurance providers. It must include the committee's view of its own effectiveness and how it has fulfilled its terms of reference. The report must include the AC's opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's audit arrangements, its framework of governance, risk management and control and its processes for securing economy, efficiency, and effectiveness. The annual report must be submitted to the Corporation before the Statement of Corporate Governance and Internal Control in the accounts is signed. A copy of the AC's annual report must be submitted to the relevant funding body with the annual accounts; and
 - k. recommend the Statement of Corporate Governance and Internal Control to the Corporation for approval.
4. Relationship with the Corporation. The Corporation expects the AC to complete and/or advise on audit associated matters as detailed in the ACOP. The AC is to advise the Corporation on the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's systems of internal control and its arrangements for risk management, control and governance.
5. Relationship with the Chief Executive Officer's (CEO) (Accounting Officers). It remains the CEO responsibility to ensure the satisfactory operation of day-to-day control framework however the internal and external auditors, together with the AC, contribute to this by provision of advice and assurance.
6. Meetings.
- a. IAS. Each Committee meeting may be preceded by a private session between the Internal and External Auditors (If attending the meeting proper and the Committee members).
 - b. Frequency. The Committee shall meet as required but normally not less than once a term unless the Chair in consultation with the Governance Director (GD) agrees that there is insufficient business; the DG will record such action.
 - c. special meetings. The DG when instructed only by the Chair, or in absentia, by the acting Chair, shall call special meetings of the Committee. At such meetings, the Agenda shall normally be limited to consideration of a single or related item. Standing items shall not be included in the Agenda.
7. Chair, Membership and Quorum.
- a. Chair. The Chair of the AC shall be appointed by the Corporation. If the Chair is absent from a Committee meeting then the meeting shall nominate a Chair for that meeting.
 - b. Membership. The Committee shall comprise:
 - (i) up to 5 Corporation Members nominated by the Corporation and confirmed every year at the first meeting of the academic year.
 - (ii) up to 2 lay members, if possible, recommended and approved by the Corporation.
 - (iii) the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) (or a representative):
- In attendance

(iv) the Executive Director (Business Development) (EDBD) (or a representative); and

(v) the Governance Director (GD).

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE (SC) TOR

1. Introduction. The authority for these TORs is contained in the:
 - a. Instruments and Articles of Government as approved by the Corporation; and
 - b. Corporation Policies.

Amendment of these TORs remains with the Corporation. The Corporation has chosen as a contingency to establish processes for a SC should formation become necessary.

1. The authority and responsibilities of the Committee.

The Committee shall examine the case for dismissal of a SPH (or DG); and additionally, the Committee is authorised to obtain all the information and explanations as necessary, from whatever source, (associated expense of >£1000 requires Corporation approval). This detail and further of their delegated powers are at Para 7 and at Annex A.
2. General Access to Meetings. The nature of business conducted by the Committee is sensitive and confidential and attendance is strictly limited to those called directly by the SC.
3. Frequency. The Committee shall meet within 10 days of a Corporation reference.
4. Chair, Membership and Quorum
 - a. Chair and Vice Chair. The Chair shall be appointed by the Committee at the initial meeting after establishment.
 - b. Membership. The Committee shall comprise:
 - (i) 5 Corporation members from the non-elected element;
 - excluding
 - (ii) the Chair, Vice-Chair either Principal; and
 - (iii) any member who has any interest in the Committee findings or who has been involved in any way in an investigation or other disciplinary action leading up to the reference of the particular matter referred to the SC, unless it is reasonably impracticable to avoid.

In attendance:

 - (iv) the DG (unless the DG is the subject, in which case an interim DG shall be appointed and references in these TORs to the DG shall refer to that post); and
 - (v) any other person to provide specialist advice or guidance from time to time as specifically requested from by the SC.
 - c. Quorum. The Committee shall be quorate with 5 members.
5. Agendas for Meetings. The Agenda shall be agreed between the Committee Chair and the DG.
6. Delegation of Authority. When examining the case for dismissal, the Committee shall consider whether the dismissal would be fair and reasonable in the circumstances, influencing considerations may include (but not necessarily limited to) the following:
 - a. any relevant documents and representations;
 - b. the terms and conditions of the senior post holder's employment;
 - c. applicable disciplinary procedures;
 - d. relevant ACAS guidance; and
 - e. relevant legislation including unfair dismissal legislation, equality legislation and the Human Rights Act 1998;

After hearing or reading and considering any such representations, to prepare a written report for consideration by the Corporation, a copy of which will be sent to the person to whom it relates. Such a written report shall be prepared within 2 calendar months of the mandate on which the SC was convened. Where it is impracticable for the Committee to prepare its report during that period, it will, during that period, prepare an interim report, a copy of which will be sent to the person to whom it relates and which will contain a timetable for the preparation of the full report.

In appropriate circumstances, and always subject to the requirements of the Financial Memorandum or successor document, to negotiate and determine terms of settlement on dismissal of a SPH and to report the outcome of such negotiations to the Corporation and to ensure that the terms of settlement are reported to the Group's external auditors

7. Procedure for Hearings. The procedure for the Hearing is at Annex A to these TORs.

Procedure for Conducting as SC Hearing.

Preliminary

1. The SPH whose dismissal is to be considered and determined by the SC shall be entitled to receive from the SC a written statement of the alleged conduct, characteristics or other circumstances which led to the SPH being considered for dismissal and the SPH shall be given a reasonable opportunity to respond.
2. When sending the statement at Paragraph 1, the SC will invite the SPH to attend a meeting with that Committee and no action, except suspension, shall be taken against the SPH until that meeting has taken place.
3. The Group representative(s), including but not limited to the Chair and/or Vice Chair and/or Principal, will attend to provide evidence in support of the case.
4. At the Committee's discretion, an external legal representative may be present at the hearing to advise the Committee.
5. At least 5 working days' notice of the hearing will be given to the SPH and the SC by the DG.
6. The Committee will receive a written report from Corporation Chair or a Vice Chair or the appropriate Principal, as appropriate, setting out the facts of the case and the grounds for the proposed dismissal. The report will also be made available at least 5 working days before the hearing to the SPH who will have the opportunity to submit a written statement or other documentation in reply at least 2 working days before the hearing.
7. The SPH will be informed of their right to be accompanied by a colleague or Trade Union Representative who may present the case on their behalf. The name of the SPH's colleague or Trade Union Representative will be given to the DG at least 2 working days before the hearing.
8. At the hearing, the Committee will first ensure the nature of the referral, the Committee's role and the procedure to be followed are understood by all persons attending.
9. The purpose of the hearing is to examine the facts, to consider the grounds for dismissal and to take such action as it considers appropriate, which may include dismissal. The Committee will communicate its decision to the SPH concerned within 5 working days of the hearing and notify the SPH of their right to appeal against the Committee's decision.

The Hearing

10. All Group representatives and the SPH will have the opportunity to be heard, produce evidence in support of their cases and question, through the Chair of the Committee, each other's statements and evidence.
11. The evidence of the Group representative(s) will be heard first and the SPH will then respond.
12. The members of the Committee will be able to put questions to the SPH and Group representative(s), their representatives and any witnesses called.
13. If the Committee is of the opinion that more evidence should be provided, the hearing may be adjourned for a period of up to 5 working days.
14. When all the evidence has been heard both parties shall have the opportunity to summarise their respective cases, starting with the Group representative and followed by the SPH, after which both will be required to withdraw from the meeting.
15. The Committee will have full discretion to admit or exclude evidence as it sees fit without following the legal rules for the admissibility of evidence and to vary, as it considers necessary, the procedure to be followed for the hearing.

16. When the hearing has concluded the Committee shall deliberate their findings in private and prepare a written decision.

Appeal

17. The SPH has the right to appeal to the Corporation against the decision of the SC and must do so in writing within 10 working days of receipt of that decision.
18. Where an appeal is made the SPH must be invited to a meeting of the Corporation within ten working days at which the SPH may make representations, including oral representations and for the purpose of making oral representations the SPH may be accompanied by a colleague or trade union representative.

Reporting Procedures

19. Reports to the full Corporation must include reference to the number of Committee members present at the previous meeting and will usually take the form of Minutes and supporting papers.
